LAWRENCE M. (LARRY) TANENBAUM, O.C.

CHAIRMAN OF THE BOARD,
MAPLE LEAF SPORTS & ENTERTAINMENT

Larry Tanenbaum was appointed Chairman of Maple Leaf Sports & Entertainment in February, 2003. He serves as Chairman of the NBA Board of Governors, as well as Governor for the Toronto Raptors, Governor and member of the Executive Committee of the NHL for the Toronto Maple Leafs and governor and member of the Executive Committee of Major League Soccer for Toronto FC. In May, 2015, the Kilmer Group, led by Mr. Tanenbaum, and Bell Canada announced the purchase of the Toronto Argonauts. MLSE acquired the team in January, 2018. He is a member of the Board and Executive Committee of the Hockey Hall of Fame in Toronto, Ontario, and Co-Chair of the 2026 FIFA World Cup.

Mr. Tanenbaum was a primary force in bringing an NBA franchise to Toronto. In the early 1990's, Tanenbaum attempted to move established NBA clubs to Toronto and then, as head of the Palestra Group, he initiated the expansion process that introduced the NBA to Canada. Although the franchise was awarded to another group, Tanenbaum established himself in NBA circles and the city as a legitimate contender for an NBA team.

In 1996, Mr. Tanenbaum acquired an interest in the Toronto Maple Leafs of the National Hockey League and Maple Leaf Gardens, Limited (now Maple Leaf Sports & Entertainment). With MLC's purchase of the Raptors and Air Canada Centre in February 1998, Tanenbaum fulfilled his goal of NBA and NHL ownership in Toronto under the same group.

Mr. Tanenbaum is Chairman and Chief Executive Officer of Kilmer Van Nostrand Co. Limited (Kilmer). Under his direction, Kilmer developed into a multi-faceted civil engineering and construction company whose operating divisions covered road building and paving, ready-mix concrete, aggregates, heavy construction, trucking and pipe manufacturing. Kilmer's road building, paving and aggregates operations were conducted through Kilmer's wholly owned subsidiary, The Warren Paving & Materials Group Limited. Mr. Tanenbaum served as Chairman of Warren, which, until its merger with Lafarge North America, was Canada's largest asphalt paving and aggregate company. In December 2000 Warren was merged into Lafarge North America Inc., North America's largest diversified construction materials company and supplier of cement, aggregates and concrete, and other materials for residential, commercial, institutional and public works construction in the United States and Canada. As a result of this merger, Kilmer became a significant shareholder in Lafarge, and Mr. Tanenbaum served on the Board and chaired its Finance Committee until the 2006 buyout by its parent company, Lafarge SA of France.

Today, Kilmer's roots in construction are expressed through innovative real estate development and leading edge public private partnerships (P3). Its Kilmer Brownfield Equity Fund reclaims contaminated land in the urban context, through sophisticated risk management and optimizing for highest and best use. Its Kilmer Developments is currently managing three P3's: The Quickload Container Examination Facility in Prince Rupert, B.C.; the 20 Ontario Highway Service Centre locations under the ONroute banner, in partnership with HMS Host and Canadian Tire; and in partnership with Dream, designed, financed and constructed the 2015 Pan Am Games Athletes' Village, which has been converted into condominiums as part of the Canary District Project. Most recently, Kilmer was part of the consortium that acquired the passenger terminal operations at Billy Bishop Toronto City Airport.

In addition, Mr. Tanenbaum serves as Chairman of Kilmer Capital Partners Limited, a private equity investment fund manager, which provides equity capital to small and mid-market companies and is dedicated to building leading companies in partnership with management. Kilmer Capital's investments have included Give and Go Prepared Foods Corp., McGregor Industries Inc., Unisync Corp. Inc., Vansco Electronics Ltd., Altasciences Inc., Atelka Enterprises Inc., Compact Power Inc., English Bay and Tribal Sportswear. Kilmer Private Equity's current portfolio includes Coalision Inc., and Kilmer Forestry, comprising Chaleur and Fornebu Sawmills in New Brunswick.

Mr. Tanenbaum served as National Revenue Chair of the Liberal Party of Canada during Prime Minister Paul Martin's term of office. He is a former member of the Ontario Investment and Trade Advisory Council, the Advisory Council, Toronto Board of Trade and the Toronto Prosperity Initiative. He has also served on the Independent Fiscal Review Panel of the City of Toronto and the Mayor's Economic Competitiveness Advisory Committee of the City of Toronto.

Mr. Tanenbaum's involvement in Community Associations includes the following: Vice Chair, Sinai Health Services – a tertiary care centre comprising Mount Sinai Hospital, Bridgepoint Hospital and Circle of Care, Chairman of the Research Board for the Lunenfeld-Tanenbaum Research Institute; Vice-Chair, Brain Canada; Member, University Council, Cornell University; Honourary Board Member, Baycrest Centre for Geriatric Care; Member of the Advisory Board, Montreal Neurological Institute; Co-Founder and member of the Board, Tanenbaum Open Science Institute; Member, Dean's Advisory Council, Schulich School of Business, York University; Founding Canadian Board Member, Executive Committee Member and member of the Global Leadership Council, Right to Play; Founding Member, Centre for Israel and Jewish Affairs; and Co-Chair, Tomorrow Campaign (UJA).

In recognition of his contributions in the areas of business, philanthropy, and volunteerism, Mr. Tanenbaum was appointed an Officer of the Order of Canada on October 25, 2007. The Order of Canada is the centrepiece of Canada's honors system and represents its highest civilian award.

In June, 2012 Mr. Tanenbaum was awarded an honorary degree of Doctor of Laws by the University of Toronto. He was inducted into the Ontario Road Builders' Hall of Fame in February 2013 and received the Toronto Board of Trade's 2015 Region Builders Award.

Mr. Tanenbaum has a Bachelor of Science degree in Economics from Cornell University (1968).

KEITH PELLEY

PRESIDENT & CEO, MAPLE LEAF SPORTS &

Keith Pelley was appointed as President & Chief Executive Officer of Maple Leaf Sports & Entertainment (MLSE) in April, 2024. MLSE is one of the world's premier sports and entertainment companies as owners of the Toronto Maple Leafs (NHL), Toronto Raptors (NBA), Toronto FC (MLS), Toronto Argonauts (CFL), Toronto Marlies (AHL), Raptors 905 (NBA G-League) and Toronto FC II (MLS Next Pro), hosting more than 3.8 million fans at its venues each year.

In addition to its sports franchises, MLSE's LIVE division has established Scotiabank Arena as one of the leading music and entertainment venues in the world, bringing hundreds of world-class shows to the building each year. The company will lead a $350 million Venue Reimagination Project to enhance the venue's standing as one of the best in the world. The organization's charitable arm, MLSE Foundation, has invested more than $65 million to support the community over the last 15 years and has impacted more than 30,000 youth annually through community programs, including operating the largest provider of youth Sport For Development programming in Ontario with MLSE LaunchPad.

Pelley, a Toronto native, joined MLSE following his role as CEO of the European Tour Group, which administers the DP World Tour, Challenge Tour, Legends Tour, G4DS Tour and the Ryder Cup in Europe.

Under Pelley's leadership, the European Tour Group introduced the Rolex Series, DP World's title partnership of the group's main tour, the G4D Tour for Golfers with a disability, mixed events with LET and LPGA, and staged the two most successful Ryder Cups to be played on European soil in Paris (2018) and Rome (2023). Pelley also guided the Tour through the global COVID-19 pandemic, negotiated the full acquisition of European Tour Productions from IMG and formed strategic alliances with the PGA TOUR, the Sunshine Tour and the Challenger PGA Tour of Australasia, as well as established pathways for other Tours onto the DP World Tour as part of the ongoing efforts to make global golf more aligned. Pelley also served as the Chairman of the International Golf Federation.

Prior to joining the European Tour Group, Pelley served as President of Rogers Media from 2010 to 2015 where he was responsible for leading the overall operations of the company's diverse portfolio including television, radio, publishing, digital media, The Shopping Channel, subscription-based content services, the Toronto Blue Jays and Rogers Centre. During his tenure, Pelley led the effort to secure the company's groundbreaking 12-year broadcast and media rights deal with the NHL.

From 2007 to 2010, Pelley was Executive Vice President of Strategic Planning at CTVglobemedia and President of Canada's Olympic Broadcast Media Consortium, where he led Rogers' and CTV's unprecedented coverage of the Vancouver 2010 Olympic Winter Games, delivering the fifth most-watched event in Canadian television history and earning a record seven Gemini Awards for its coverage.

Pelley served as President and CEO of the Toronto Argonauts from 2004 to 2007, winning the Grey Cup in his first season with the club, following his role as President of The Sports Network (TSN), the company he first joined in 1986. In 1994, Pelley left TSN for FOX, where he worked as a game producer for the NFL, NFL Europe, NHL, and MLB, returning to TSN in 1997 as Senior Vice-President of Programming & Production. Pelley was appointed President of TSN in 2001.

Pelley has devoted much of his time to numerous charitable organizations over the years, including Holland Bloorview Kids Rehabilitation Hospital Foundation and has received a number of industry awards and recognition, including twice being named Media Player of the Year (2012, 2011); Ryerson Alumni Achievement Award (2011); member of the Etobicoke Sports Hall of Fame (2011); Special Olympics Ontario Sponsors Hall of Fame (2007) and Miles Nadal JCC Sportsman of the Year (2006).

Pelley graduated from Ryerson University (now called Toronto Metropolitan University) with a BA in Radio and Television Arts, and also received an ATCL Diploma from Trinity College in London.

Pelley and his wife, Joan, are the proud parents of Jason and Hope.

DALE LASTMAN, C.M.

CFL Governor, Chair of Goodmans LLP

Dale Lastman practices corporate, commercial and securities law and provides counsel in connection with public offerings, mergers and acquisitions, and business restructurings. Lastman is a Director of Maple Leaf Sports & Entertainment Ltd. and serves as an Alternate Governor for the NHL and NBA and a Governor of the Toronto Argonauts for the CFL. In 2016, Lastman was honoured with Osgoode's Alumni Gold Key award for outstanding professional achievement and his contribution to the legal community.

BILL MANNING

President, Toronto Argonauts
Toronto FC

Bill Manning joined MLSE as President of Toronto FC on October 12, 2015 and later also added his responsibilities as President of the Toronto Argonauts when the Canadian Football League franchise was acquired by the company in January, 2018.

Manning joined Toronto FC after spending the previous eight seasons as president of both Real Salt Lake (RSL) and Rio Tinto Stadium. During his time with RSL, Manning transformed the club into a winner, leading the organization to a 2009 MLS Cup championship, as well as a model franchise off the pitch where both season tickets and sponsorships more than tripled. The club also won the Eastern Conference title (2009), Western Conference title (2013) and were MLS Cup runners-up (2013) and CONCACAF Champions League runners-up (2011). Manning was the recipient of the Major League Soccer Doug Hamilton Executive of the Year award in both 2012 and 2014. In addition, he helped establish, open and sold naming rights to Rio Tinto Stadium, home to Real Salt Lake.

Prior to joining MLSE, Manning previously served in executive positions with the National Football League's Philadelphia Eagles, the National Basketball Association's Houston Rockets and Real Salt Lake of MLS.

A native of Massapequa, New York, Manning was a nationally-recognized collegiate soccer player at the University of Bridgeport where, as a sophomore, he helped the Purple Knights to a NCAA quarterfinal berth, and as a senior in 1986 he led his team to a final four appearance while earning first-team All-America honors. Manning continued his playing career after college and won a U.S. Open Cup with the Brooklyn Italians in 1991 and played professionally in the United Soccer League (USL) with the Penn-Jersey Spirit (1991), Valley Golden Eagles (1993) and New York Fever (1994-95). Manning also holds a U.S. Soccer National "A" Coaching License.

Manning began his career in sports management with the Continental Indoor Soccer League during its inaugural season in 1993. After his last season with the Fever, he went on to leadership roles in the United Soccer League with the Long Island Rough Riders and then the Minnesota Thunder where he was named USL Executive of the Year in 1999 following their championship season. Manning got his start in MLS in 2000 with the Tampa Bay Mutiny as President and General Manager and was named 2000 MLS Executive of the Year by the Washington Post.

On October 8, 2019, Michael Clemons returned to the Argonauts in a new role. On that date, the man who had done virtually everything for the Argos was named the 20th general manager in team history.

Clemons arrived in Canada from Dunedin, Florida for the first time in 1989 after stints with the Kansas City Chiefs and Tampa Bay Buccaneers. Shortly thereafter he acquired the nickname "Pinball." It was in reference to the way the diminutive running back was bouncing off would-be tacklers.

Before his playing career ended, he would carry the ball for more yards than any player in pro football history. His final total was 25,438 combined yards: 5,341 rushing, 7,015 receiving, 6,349 kickoff return, 6,025 punt return, and 708 on missed field goals.

He'd win Grey Cups with the Argos as a player in 1991, 1996 and 1997, before retiring midway through the 2000 season. He was asked to replace John Huard as the head coach for the last half of the season. Clemons made his head coaching debut in the Labour Day Classic in Hamilton on September 4, before returning to the lineup in a player/coach capacity for two games, including his final CFL game on September 15.

Clemons would coach the team for the remainder of the 2000 season, and the full 2001 campaign. He'd return a dozen games into the 2002 season after a 4-8 start by the team and would remain in that position until the end of 2007.

During that time span he'd win his fourth Grey Cup ring as an Argo, leading the team to the 2004 championship as its head coach. Clemons finished with 55 regular season coaching wins, second in team history, behind only Bob O'Billovich.

He would serve as the Argos President 2001-02, Chief Executive Officer 2007-08, and Vice-Chair from 2009-2019, where he'd win two more Grey Cup rings, giving him a total of six.

The fan favourite would win his seventh Grey Cup – his first as a general manager – in 2022. Clemons' record in Grey Cup games in an unblemished 7-0.

He would be inducted into the Canadian Football Hall of Fame in 2008 and into the Ontario Sports Hall of Fame a year later. In 2016 he was inducted into Canada's Sports Hall of Fame. He was also been named to the Order of Ontario in 2001. In 2013 he was awarded The Queen Elizabeth II Diamond Jubilee Medal.

His number 31 has been retired, one of just four Argonauts to have received that honour. Clemons was named the CFL's Most Outstanding Player in 1990. He won the CFLPA's Tom Pate Award twice, in recognition of his contributions on the field and in the community.

In 2007 he and his wife Diane founded the Pinball Clemons Foundation, where the goal is to empower youth through education.

The foundation is responsible for the construction of a hospital in Uganda, over 200 schools in seven countries, a pair of orphanages in Haiti, awarded almost 200 scholarships, and provided kids with mentors and opportunities to attend summer camp.

Clemons is a graduate of the College of William and Mary, where he received a degree in economics.

Michael and Diane Clemons have been married since 1992 and are the parents of three daughters, Rachel, Raven and Rylie, all of whom were born in Canada. Michael officially became a Canadian citizen in 2015.

2005:	Faith Christian Academy, Head Coach
2002-2009:	East-West Shrine Game, Director of Player Development

As the media focused on the signing of Michael Clemons as general manager in October 2019, the Argos appointed John Murphy as the team's vice-president of player personnel on the same day.

His connection with Canada began in 2005 as a college and pro scout for the Montreal Alouettes, followed by a similar job with the Calgary Stampeders, where he was eventually elevated to the role of director of scouting.

The Merrick, New York native took a similar post with the Winnipeg Blue Bombers in 2010, before returning to Calgary two seasons later to become their assistant general manager.

In 2016 he'd head to Saskatchewan to become the Roughriders assistant vice-president of player personnel and football operations.

Murphy's entrance into the world of scouting was unique, as he started his own scouting service in 1999. His work with Next Level Scouting Inc. led to a job evaluating players for Yahoo! Sports, which eventually got him noticed by the Oakland Raiders, for whom he did some scouting in 2005.

He joined the Argos in early 2019 as a scout and personnel advisor before being elevated to his current role in early October of that year.

Murphy was not with the team in 2022 but returned as a consultant in 2023 and has subsequently returned to his role as assistant general manager.

A resident of Houston, Texas, Murphy attended Hofstra University.

RYAN DINWIDDIE

Head Coach, Offensive Coordinator

A new era began in Toronto on December 12, 2019, when Ryan Dinwiddie became the 45th head coach in Argonaut history.

In 2021, his first season with the Argos, Dinwiddie led the team to a 9-5 record and first place in the East Division. He would be recognized by being named one of the finalists for the CFL Coach of the Year award.

He added the offensive coordinator role to his title in January 2022 and led the Argos to even greater heights. The team finished 11-7 in the regular season, defeated Montreal in the Eastern Final, then beat Winnipeg to win the 18th Grey Cup in franchise history.

Dinwiddie was again named the East Division's Coach of the Year.

In 2023 he'd lead the team to a 16-2 record, tying the league mark for the best regular season record ever. It was his third consecutive regular season crown, joining Bob O'Billovich as the only Argo coaches to win three division titles. He was named the East Division's Coach of the Year for a third consecutive time, but this time he took top honours in the CFL, becoming the eighth coach in team history to win that award.

Dinwiddie enters the season with a career record of 36-14. His .720 winning percentage is the fourth highest in team history, and the best since 1922.

The former CFL quarterback joined the Double Blue from Calgary, where he had been the Stampeders quarterbacks coach for the previous four seasons. They reached the Grey Cup three times in that span, winning it in 2018.

Bo Levi Mitchell would be named the league's Most Outstanding Player twice in those four seasons working with Dinwiddie.

Dinwiddie had coached with the Montreal Alouettes in various capacities between 2013 and 2015. While he was the team's running backs coach in 2015, Tyrell Sutton led the league in rushing.

A native of Elk Grove, just outside Sacramento, California, Dinwiddie played his NCAA football at Boise State. He was a three-year starter and finished with 9,819 yards and 82 touchdowns against just 21 interceptions. As a senior he threw 31 touchdown passes in 14 games.

He turned pro in 2004, spending a year and a training camp with the Chicago Bears. After his release he played a year in NFL Europe for the Hamburg Sea Devils. In 2006 he'd move to Canada for the first time, playing three seasons for the Winnipeg Blue Bombers. His first start was under pressure, as it came in the 2007 Grey Cup following an injury to Kevin Glenn the week before. He'd throw for 225 yards and a TD, but also three interceptions in a 23-19 loss to Saskatchewan in Toronto.

His first regular season start took place on July 24 the next season as the Bombers hosted Calgary. He finished with 450 yards passing with one touchdown and no interceptions in a 32-28 win.

Dinwiddie continued his career in 2010 and 2011 with the Riders in a backup capacity before retiring as a player.

His coaching career began in Montreal in 2013 as a quality control coach, but by 2014 he was the Alouettes offensive coordinator. In 2015 he began the season as the running backs coach, but by September was elevated to co-offensive coordinator with Anthony Calvillo.

The Calgary Stampeders hired him as their quarterbacks coach in 2016 where he really started to have the CFL world take notice of his accomplishments, which led to the Argonauts hiring him as their head coach following the 2019 season.

KEVIN EIBEN

Defensive Co-Coordinator

COACHING CAREER:

2024	Toronto Argonauts , Defensive Co-Cordinator and Linebackers Coach
2022-2023:	Toronto Argonauts , Linebackers Coach
2020-21:	Toronto Argonauts : Linebackers Coach and Special Teams Assistant
2019:	Toronto Argonauts , Linebackers Coach
2017-18:	Toronto Argonauts , Special Teams Coordinator
2014-16:	University of Toronto , Defensive Coordinator
2013:	McMaster University , Defensive Coordinator

A fan favourite as a player, Eiben returns to the coaching staff for an eighth year, but in an expanded role. He remains the Argos linebackers coach but has been promoted to defensive co-coordinator with Will Fields.

He joined the Argos staff after three years at the University of Toronto as the Blues defensive coordinator. He held the same title at McMaster in 2013, his first year after announcing his retirement from the CFL.

Eiben was a tackling machine in his 11 seasons with Toronto, before wrapping up his career with one final year in Hamilton.

The linebacker ranks second in CFL history in tackles by a Canadian player, trailing only his long-time teammate Mike O'Shea. His 113 tackles in 2005 is still the league record for most tackles in a season by a Canadian.

A native of Delta, B.C., Eiben was a fourth-round selection in 2001. He'd become a five-time All-Star, being named the Argos Most Outstanding Player in 2004, a year they went on to win the Grey Cup.

A student of the game as a player, entering the coaching ranks was a natural progression. He finished his career with 92 special teams tackles in Toronto, including an eye opening 33 in 2003, still the Argos single-season record.

He now has three Grey Cup rings: 2004 as a player and 2017 and 2022 as a coach. Eiben played his college football at Bucknell University.

WILL FIELDS

Defensive Co-Coordinator

COACHING CAREER:

2024:	Toronto Argonauts, Defensive Co-Coordinator, Secondary Coach
2022-2023:	Toronto Argonauts, Secondary Coach
2020-21:	Peru State College, Defensive Coordinator, Defensive Backs Coach
2019:	Tampa Vipers (XFL), Secondary Coach
2019:	Edmonton (CFL) Assistant Defensive Backs Coach
2017-18:	Hamilton Tiger-Cats, Defensive Backs Coach, Assistant Special Teams Coach
2016:	Montreal Alouettes, Defensive Backs Coach
2015:	B.C. Lions, Defensive Back Coach, Quality Control
2014:	Simon Fraser University, Defensive Backs Coach
2013-14:	B.C. Lions, Scout
2010-14:	Cypress Christian School, Defensive Backs Coach

Fields is back for a third season in Toronto, but with an expanded role. He and Kevin Eiben will be defensive co-coordinators, while Fields will also act as the defensive secondary coach.

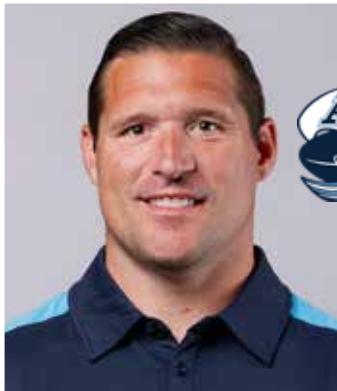

The former defensive back played for six seasons with Calgary and Winnipeg before entering the coaching ranks.

He was a member of the Calgary Stampeders when they won the Grey Cup in 2001 before adding another Grey Cup ring in 2022 with the Argos.

A native of McKeesport, Pennsylvania, he began coaching at Cypress Christian High School in Houston, Texas before returning to Canada to coach at Simon Fraser University in 2014. He then made his way back to the CFL with coaching stops in B.C., Montreal and Edmonton.

Fields coached in the XFL as the secondary coach with the Tampa Vipers.

He is a graduate of the University of Houston.

MICKEY DONOVAN

Special Teams Coordinator

COACHING CAREER:

2022-Present:	Toronto Argonauts, Special Teams Coordinator
2021:	Montreal Alouettes, Special Teams Coordinator, Linebackers Coach
2018-20:	Montreal Alouettes, Special Teams Coordinator,
2014-17:	Concordia University, Head Coach
2012-13:	McGill University, Defensive Coordinator, Assistant Head Coach
2007-11:	Western University, Linebackers Coach, Special Teams Coach, Recruiting Coordinator
2006:	University of New Hampshire: Coaching Intern

It was announced on January 19, 2022, that Donovan was joining the Argonauts as the team's special teams coordinator. He would win his first Grey Cup ring in his first season with the Double Blue.

He joined the Argos after spending the previous four years in Montreal running special teams, then additionally coaching linebackers for the Alouettes.

Coming to Toronto meant Donovan left Montreal for the first time since 2012 when he was named McGill's defensive coordinator and assistant head coach before heading down the mountain to become Concordia's head coach. He was named the RSEQ Coach of the Year in 2014. After four seasons with the Stingers he joined the Alouettes.

The Laconia, New Hampshire native began his coaching career in his home state at the University of New Hampshire, before joining the Western Mustangs as their special teams coordinator and recruiting coordinator.

Donovan was a dominant U SPORTS player after transferring to Concordia from Maine. The linebacker was a First Team All-Canadian in 2003 and 2004, winning the President's Trophy as the best defensive player in the country in 2004.

He spent parts of two seasons with the Hamilton Tiger-Cats, but a knee injury ended his career in 2006.

It's not his first time coaching the Argos, as he was a guest coach during training camp in 2013.

PETE COSTANZA

Receivers Coach and Pass Game Coordinator

COACHING CAREER:

2022 - Present:	Toronto Argonauts, Receivers Coach, Pass Game Coordinator
2020-21:	Winnipeg Blue Bombers, Running Backs Coach
2008-19:	Calgary Stampeders, Receivers Coach

2001:	Iowa Barnstormers (AF2), Offensive Coordinator
2000:	Roanoke Steam (AF2), Offensive Coordinator
1997-99:	New Jersey Red Dogs (AFL), Assistant Head Coach

Costanza joined the Argos in the dual role of receivers coach and pass game coordinator on January 19, 2022.

He had been with the Winnipeg Blue Bombers 2020-21 as their running backs coach, highlighted by a Grey Cup win over Hamilton in 2021.

Prior to joining the Bombers, Costanza had been the receivers coach for 12 seasons with the Calgary Stampeders 2008-19, winning the Grey Cup three times.

He joined the Argos in 2022 as the receivers coach and pass game coordinator. That season he would win his fifth Grey Cup ring and second in as many years with a victory over his former club.

Before heading to the CFL, the graduate of William Paterson University, where he played receiver, was the head coach of the Albany Conquest in AFL2 – where he won a league title in 2003 – and the defensive backs coach at RPI.

The New Jersey native also had several arena league stops along the way. His first job in 1997 was with the New Jersey Red Dogs of the Arena Football League where he worked for the first time with John Hufnagel.
